Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• As part of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan Program, the Mahathi College of Pharmacy will organize Cleanliness Drive on October 5th, 2022, in honor of Gandhi Jayanti. The main objective of this program was to increase student's awareness of cleanliness and its benefits.• All of the Mahathi College of Pharmacy's students, as well as the teachers, took part in this program. We had been to the nearby hill station Horsley Hills as part of our Cleanliness Drive.• The hill stations are high-altitude communities utilized for pleasure, enjoyment, and as a haven from the sweltering summer heat in India. In addition to having a filthy appearance, incorrect waste disposal causes issues with contamination, land pollution, and the introduction of new diseases. In order to live a healthy and happy life, it is crucial to keep the hilly region clean and green.• Students and staff members swept the area after collecting litter such as wrappers, plastic bottles, garbage, and other environmentally detrimental items. They gathered them and then put them in the trash cans. We all gathered in the neighbouring park after a half-day of working on this project. At 10.30 am, there, we had refreshments in the shape of cool beverages and food. 12:30 Noon Lunch was served.

Coordinator	Dr. Swarnalatha
Organizing Department	Dept. of Pharmacology
Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In honour of World Blood Donor Day, a seminar was organized in the seminar room of the Mahathi College of Pharmacy. The purpose of the event was to compile a database of willing blood donors who might be contacted in an emergency.• Dr. Prakash Reddy, the Principal of the Mahathi college pharmacy, served as the resource. Dr. G. Swarnalatha, MCPM's vice principal, presided over the meeting. All of the HoDs, faculty members, and students were present for the session.• Blood is the most essential component of human life and is regarded as the most valuable gift that anyone can offer to another person, Dr. V. Ragini said in the opening remarks of the session following a welcoming presentation by Dr. P. Senthil Kumar.• More over Dr. V. Ragini described the discrepancy between blood supply and demand and claimed that a number of variables, including an ageing population, technological advancements, an increase in trauma cases, etc., have worsened this discrepancy. She gave a thorough explanation of the blood components, their expiration dates, and collecting techniques.• On this occasion, Dr. Manasa delivered a formal vote of thanks.
